

Contents

Health and Aging ♦ Research ♦ Models ♦ Resources

HEALTH AND AGING

- I. New healthcare law changes
 - a. Effects on current agencies—reimbursement difficulties
 - i. Supreme court Holmstead decision
 - b. Donated hours in your banks—think in terms of abundance
- II. Strategies: How to move to the next level? How to change the healthcare system in America?
 - a. Get more press—who covers social justice issues in your community?
 - b. “Useful hook” in this economy
 - c. Get in touch with legal services system and law (partner with them)
- III. Research world
 - a. School legal clinics/MSW students
 - b. Academics can perform studies/get funding
 - c. “Turning the tide” concept accepts both Time and traditional dollars
- IV. Various models
 - a. Housing for seniors
 - b. Shared housing (Western Massachusetts)
 - c. Village model: staying in your house
 - d. Fed program for affordable housing
 - e. Coop housing communities
 - f. TimeBank brokers in the UK (in US terms, “matchmakers”)
 - g. The Greenhouse Concept
 - i. Frail and hard to pull off
 - ii. Look to NCD.gov for report on housing for people with disabilities
- V. Educating—government, leadership
 - a. Change thinking and language choices
 - i. UK founder negatively described aging people as “a problem” rather than an opportunity
 - 1. TimeBanking’s role to change this view (everyone is an asset)
- VI. Instructive/inspiring books
 - a. Money or Your Life: Time for Both
 - b. The Wealth of Time

Participants

Kathy Perlow
Kim Hodge
Barbara Huston
Susan Poor
Michele Magar
James Mackie
Willow Meyer
John E. Farley
Zoila Rojas
Devorah Levy
Stacey Jacobsohn
Jan Blanton
Joan Eads
Chloe Budnick
Sherry Sutler
Mary Ann Wenniger

- VII. Monthly calls—group conference calls with others struggling on succeeding in your mission
- VIII. Action Hub: for housing, healthcare research, for other TimeBanks use
 - a. Access through Community Weaver